Mid-term evaluation of the Erasmus+ Programme

How has Erasmus+ proven to be such a success?

- Erasmus+, the EU's flagship programme for education, training, youth and sport (2014-2020), has proved to be highly beneficial to the participants, not only in terms of supporting the transition to employment but also by creating a feeling of being an EU citizen.
- Evidence shows that Erasmus+ is more coherent, relevant and partly more efficient and simpler than its predecessors.
- As regards the future of Erasmus+, the evaluation makes a clear case for a stronger investment in education and training with a new emphasis on the younger generations and the most vulnerable groups.
